PRESS RELEASE OF MULTI-GATHERING ON MAY 22, 2017

OF THE ROTARY CLUBS

PANORAMA, KALAMARIA & THESSALONIKI ANATOLIA

Pain, sadness and intense emotion were the feelings that flooded the hearts of members and friends of the three Rotarians Clubs, Panorama, Kalamaria and Thessaloniki Anatolia, on Monday, May 22, 2017, at Nefeli Hotel, in Panorama, by the speech of the charismatic teacher and man, Giorgos Lyssarides, on:

"Genocide of the Greeks of the Pontos. The importance of maintaining it historical memory".

The speaker used excerpts of descriptions of events, poems and a host of other elements, including the very definition of genocide by itself, the Organization of the United Nations, from which, automatically, the genocide of the Greeks of the Pontos is presumed.

The event was also honored by the city's deputy, Savvas Anastasiades, from our Rotary Region 2484, the incoming Governor Theodoros Aspasidis, the Assistant Governor, Danae Palamidou, the past Governor Petros Apostolidis, the Rotaract Representative Dimitra Zeza and many Rotaracts from the Clubs of our city.
